

Allan Karol & PMHS Queen's Men

Allan Karol featured in The Enquirer, May 4th edition

Allan Karol, Purcell Marian High School – 2008 marks the 50th anniversary of the Queen's Men, Purcell Marian's drama group, directed for 10 years by Karol. Molly Colleen Moran writes that Karol almost single-handedly runs the program in the gym on a tight budget, with the cast building the sets.

“At Purcell Marian, we take pride in our diverse population and everyone is invited and made to feel welcome in the Queen's Men. Mr. Karol never turns away any student who is interested in working on or off the stage. Students from our Special Needs program act as stage hands and perform ... I now realize there is a place for everyone in the theater regardless of their ability.”
