Spend an hour of adoration
to pray for vocations

“If you have sometimes entered into the heart of our tender Mother you have found there no other interests than those of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Christ her adorable Son her firstborn our elder Brother.

Place yourself at the foot of the cross with Mary and the disciple whom Jesus loved.

1

Quiet yourself in the presence of Our Lord and remember all of the blessings He has bestowed upon you.

Begin by saying the prayer that Jesus taught us, the Our Father.

Ask Jesus for His loving guidance during this precious hour of time spent together.

Meditate on these scriptures and consider how they relate to God's plan for your life and how you can respond to the promptings of the Holy Spirit with your unique gifts.

- ⊙ John 19: 25-27 His last act from the cross, Jesus places His mother in the care of the disciple He loved.
- ⊙ 1 Corinthians 12: 4-6 We all have special gifts but one mission from the same God.
- ⊙ Matthew 9:37-38 It was the express wish of Christ that we pray for vocations, for the "harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few."

Marianist Brothers pause each day at three o'clock to say this traditional prayer and remember Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.

As you read the words of the Marianist Three O' Clock Prayer, meditate on their meaning:

Lord Jesus,
we gather in spirit at the foot of the Cross
with your Mother
and the disciple whom you loved.
We ask your pardon for our sins,
which are the cause of your death.
We thank you for remembering us
in that hour of salvation
and for giving us Mary as our Mother.
Holy Virgin, take us under your protection and open us to the action of the Holy Spirit.

St. John, obtain for us the grace of taking Mary into our lives as you did,
and of assisting her in her mission.

May the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit
be glorified in all places
through the Immaculate Virgin Mary. Amen.
